Commissioner:

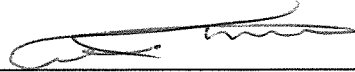

Reasons for allowance are only warranted in instances in which "the record of the prosecution as a whole does not make clear his or her reasons for allowing a claim or claims."
(37 CFR § 1.104(e))

While Applicant agrees that the claims are allowable, the applicant does not acquiesce with the statements in the reasons for allowance: The examiner does not state the invention of the claims precisely. Applicant believes that the claims are allowable because the prior art neither disclose nor suggest an apparatus including at least one auxiliary vane substantially devoid of
